Unison Reading: 2 Kings 19:10-19

<sup>10</sup> “Thus shall you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God on whom you rely deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup> See, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my predecessors destroyed: Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?”

<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it; then Hezekiah went up to the house of the Lord and spread it before the Lord. <sup>15</sup> And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord and said, “O Lord the God of Israel, who are enthroned above the cherubim, you are God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. <sup>16</sup> Incline your ear, O Lord, and hear; open your eyes, O Lord, and see; hear the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. <sup>17</sup> Truly, O Lord, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands <sup>18</sup> and have hurled their gods into the fire, though they were no gods but the work of human hands—wood and stone—and so they were destroyed. <sup>19</sup> So now, O Lord our God, save us, I pray you, from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, O Lord, are God alone.”

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Lord, on this independence day weekend, we recognize our dependence on you. Apart from you we are nothing. Yet we wander in our own way as if we do not need you. We mess up in our thoughts, words, and deeds. We have left undone that which we should have done, and have done things which we know are wrong. Forgive us as individuals, as families, as a church, as a community, as a nation. In your mercy, turn us back to your great love waiting for us. You are the Lifter of our Heads and the Lover of our souls.
